

Important Information About Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

As a result, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and your social security number when you open an account. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Together, we can help prevent the funding of terrorist activities.
